Do you ever wonder why so many names that used to end in "y" now end with "i" — like Becki or Terri or Cindi. Those people must have played the car game on vacations where you spell your name from letters on billboards. There just weren't enough signs with "y" on them to ever win. Meanwhile, the poor Janes and Jennifers patiently wait for highway junction signs. Maybe that's why road-kill bingo and electronic games replaced the old-fashioned time-fillers.

The team with the best "network" wins.

Lincoln Telephone Cellular and First Cellular Omaha have teamed up to form a continuous network between Lincoln and Omaha. This gives our customers the convenience of non-stop coverage, without annoying service interruptions.

Plus, our interconnection with Nebraska Cellular and Cellular 29 Plus gives you the advantage of continuous coverage when traveling along Interstate 80 across Nebraska and Interstate 29 in southwest Iowa.

So join our team today. With teamwork like this, you can score from just about anywhere.

One of the winningest coaches in the history of collegiate volleyball, Terry Pettit has held the reigns of the Husker program for 18 years. In those 18 seasons, Pettit has guided Nebraska to 16 Big Eight Championships, two national final games, and three national semifinals. During the past 12 seasons and continuing into 1994, Nebraska has maintained 149 consecutive weeks of American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Top 20 rankings. Pettit was honored by the AVCA as the Midwest Regional Coach-of-the-Year in 1986, 1988 and 1989 and was voted the National Coach-of-the-Year in 1986 after guiding the Huskers to a runner-up finish at the NCAA Championships. Under his tutelage, 21 All-Americans, three U.S. National team players, a Honda-Broderick Award winner, three Big Eight Conference Female Athletes-of-the-Year, seven Big Eight Volleyball Players-of-the-Year and 68 All-Big Eight performers have graced the Lincoln campus.

THIS WEEK'S FEATURE
PEGGY MEYER

When Peggy Meyer was 16 years old and just a sophomore in high school, she saw the Huskers play on television in the final four.

"I already knew they were the best team in the Midwest," said the Moorhead, Minn. native. "But when I saw them play on TV, I knew right then that Nebraska was the place for me."

One visit to the Lincoln campus and she was signed, sealed and delivered. She didn't even bother visiting another school.

While she's been used primarily as a role player throughout her Husker career, last weekend in the Arby's Classic, she started for the injured Jen McFadden and had two of the best matches of her career. Against New Mexico she had a career-high 17 kills and hit .500, good enough for all-tournament honors.

"I'd be lying if I said I wouldn't love to start," she explained. "But when I come off the bench I try to give the team what it needs. If we're a little down, I try to be real excited and get us going again."

Meyer got her volleyball career going in junior high at a small Catholic school in Minnesota. She then went on to be named a 1990 Mizuno High School Volleyball All-American and one of the most highly recruited athletes in the Midwest.

In addition to her athletic achievements, Meyer is an outstanding student in psychology who has made the Dean's list every semester.

As Meyer concludes a solid four-year career, her last wish is to return to the venue where she first saw the Huskers -- the final four.

"INTIMIDATING" COLISEUM PLAYS HOST TO BLUE DEVIL-HUSKER BATTLE

In a scheduling peculiarity, the No. 2- (Volleyball Monthly) and No. 3-(AVCA) ranked Nebraska volleyball team takes on No. 18 and No. 19 Duke on both Friday and Saturday night at 7:30 p.m. The Huskers and the Blue Devils have met only once in school history. In 1976 Duke defeated Nebraska 15-10, 15-4.

After playing host to the Blue Devils, Nebraska embarks on a four-match Big Eight road trip, that begins with an October 8 battle against Oklahoma. Earlier this week, the Huskers began their conference schedule against Missouri.

DUKE

Champions of the Atlantic Coast Conference, Duke had an incredibly successful season in 1993. The Blue Devils were 30-3 overall and advanced to the regionals of the NCAA tournament before losing to perennial powerhouse Texas, 3-0.

The success of '93 has carried over into '94 as Duke is 8-0 and still the class of the ACC.

Ashley Wacholder, a Volleyball Monthly

third-team All-American in '93, is the Blue Devils' top attacker. She leads the team in kills and digs per game.

NEBRASKA COLISEUM

Arguably the toughest place to play in the country, the Nebraska Coliseum is one of the greatest venues to watch a volleyball game. Last weekend a Coliseum record-crowd of 4,577 witnessed the Huskers defeat New Mexico in a battle of top 20 teams. With the roar of the crowd behind them, the Huskers pulled out a 3-1 win, coming from behind in game four to win 17-15.

"I think that teams coming into the Coliseum can be intimidated by the crowd," said Husker setter Christy Johnson. "I know if I came in here I would be intimidated. It really helps when you know all those people are behind you."

This weekend the Huskers will try to win their 32nd and 33rd consecutive match at the Coliseum and extend to 82 its home streak of 1,000-or-more in attendance.

NEBRASKA NOTES (prior to Missouri)

□ Kelly Aspegren's 103 career service aces ranks eighth in school history.

□ Peggy Meyer had a career-high 17 kills against New Mexico last weekend.

□ Also against the Lobos, Christy Johnson had a career-high 68 assists.

□ Allison Weston had the third-highest kill total of her career last weekend against New Mexico with 28.

□ Johnson and Weston have been named to every all-tournament team this season. Johnson was the MVP of the Purdue Premier and Weston garnered the same honors at the First Tier Invitational and Arby's Classic.

□ The Huskers have four hitters with a .355 attack percentage or better.
